Lawn Sale & Used Book Sale: Saturday, June 3

On June 3 from 9 a.m.—3 p.m. there will be a lawn sale sponsored by the Greater Federation of Women's Clubs Hudson Community Club. Proceeds benefit the Ann Seabury Tutoring Room in a new library when it is built. Items at the Lawn Sale include food/drinks, a "trash to treasure" table, basket raffles, and artist Pete Duquette's "Read the Trees" t-shirts with designs for local towns.

The Friends of the Library will be opening their "Secondhand Prose" book sale at 49 Ferry Street during the lawn sale. Stop by for great deals on books, CD's videos and more as well as tote bags, notecards and suncatchers that make good teacher gifts.

Farewell to the Rolling Hills. Take one last tour of the bookmobile before it is retired.

In The Land Of Nod? Let's Hope

Sleep disorders, whether it's the kind that prevents you from falling asleep when you're really tired, or the kind that does not allow you to sleep through the entire night, can be very debilitating. Those who struggle with chronic sleep disorders such as insomnia, sleep apnea or narcolepsy feel quite hopeless with a sense of despair that wreaks havoc in their daily lives. A new study by the Institute of Medicine found that estimates of between 50 to 70 million Americans or nearly one in six Americans suffer some form of sleep disorder. The library has a number of resources to assist you in understanding sleep problems. Check out:

Good nights. G. Zammit

The promise of sleep. W. C. Dement

Getting to sleep. E. M. Catalano.

Don't snore anymore. J. N. Hausfeld

Public Library Destinations Cited in TravelSmart Magazine

In a special pullout section of the April 2006 issue, TravelSmart magazine

(www.TravelSmartNewsletter.com) designated 15 New American Landmark Libraries as "architectural gems." An article in the April 2005 issue featured 15 historical libraries. The publisher of TravelSmart said they wanted to "get our readers to think about going to libraries when traveling as tourists. People should visit beautiful library buildings just like they visit the Statue of Liberty." They provide much-needed services for travelers – Internet access, cafes, quiet resting spots, and information about local history.

The 15 public libraries are: Fayetteville PL, AR; Burton Barr Library, Phoenix PL; Cerritos Lib., CA; Richard J. Riordan Central Library, Los Angeles PL; Main Library, San Francisco PL; Denver Central Library; Harold Washington Lib. Center, Clearwater Main Public Library, FL; Chicago PL; Wellesley Free PL, MA; Minneapolis PL; Princeton PL, NJ; Cleveland PL; San Antonio Central Library; Salt Lake City PL; and Seattle Central Library.

Patterson Library's Rebirth Highlighted in USA Today article

An extensive article in the April 16 USA Today portrayed the rebirth of the northside branch library of the Patterson, NJ Public Library a bright spot in a poor neighborhood in a poor city. The library had to close its doors because the neighborhood was so dangerous the library couldn't guarantee the safety of employees. But community members organized to fight gang and gun violence, and the library became a symbol in their fight to reclaim the community.

You can call or register in person. There may be room for walk-ins but call the library in advance to be sure, some programs have limited space.

June 29: School's Out Sundaes Celebration 7 – 8:30 p.m.

Celebrate summer with a "make your own sundae" party. Come for a night of games and trivia. Lots of great summer books will be available.

Food Pantry Donations

Bring in items for the food pantry between June 26 and August 26 and get raffle tickets. We will be collecting donations in Annex II and at the Summer Reading Program Events.

Second Hand Prose Book Sale Sunday, June 11

If you missed the lawn sale, the Friends of the library will hold their monthly book sale as usual on the second Sunday of the month, June 11, from 12-3 at 49 Ferry Street/Rte 111 (The second house past the library on the right). Books for adults and children, videos, CDs and more will be available. Most hardbacks are $1 and paperbacks 50 cents. Specials for June are non-fiction books.

Playreading Circle, June 20

The Hills Memorial Library holds a monthly playreading circle. Multiple copies of play scripts will be available and participants can take on the roles of characters from the monthly play selection. You may also come and listen to the play reading by others. This is a wonderful chance to listen to great works of theatre come alive vocally, instead of just reading them on the page.

This month we will be reading "The Philadelphia Story", Philip Barry's classic comedy (postponed from May). The playreading circle will meet on Tuesday, June 20 at 6:30 p.m.. Call Amy Friedman at 886-6030 ext. 26 for more information or to suggest future plays.

New Morning Book Discussion Group, Big Stone Gap

We have started a new book discussion group for people who prefer meeting in the morning. The group will be meeting the third Tuesday of the month at 10 a.m.

This month, on June 20 at 10 a.m. we will be discussing Big Stone Gap by Adriana Trigiani, the hilarious story of a group of eccentric characters and a family secret in a small Virginia town. Our next discussion will be The Pilot's Wife by Anita Shreve on July 18. Books are available in Annex II. Call 886-6030 ext. 26 for more information or to add your name to our book group mailing list.

Evening Book Discussion Before You Know Kindness

We will be holding a book discussion on Tuesday, June 27 at 7 p.m. We will be discussing Before You Know Kindness, by Chris Bohjalian, the story of a tragic accident that tears a family apart. Evening Book Discussion Group meets the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. Next month we will be discussing The Jane Austen Book Club on July 25. Multiple copies of the books are available at the library. For more information call 886-6030 ext. 26.

Hot New Fiction Titles Promise Me. Harlan Coben

Blue Shoes and Happiness. Alexander McCall Smith

Beach Road. James Patterson & Peter de Jonge

Dark Harbor. Stuart Woods

Digging to America. Anne Tyler

Susannah's Garden. Debbie Macomber
