Buy a Brick

Spring deadline is approaching -- it's time to buy a brick to be placed on the library front walk.

Two lines: $50 or three lines: $75. Pick up an order form at the library or print one out online.

Spring deadline is April 16th

Free Tax Help at the Library

Volunteers from the AARP will be at the library to help senior citizens and low to moderate income taxpayers with their tax returns. Tax assistance volunteers do not, however, help prepare Schedule C over $10,000 in expenses, Schedule E, complicated/lengthy Schedule D forms without proper paperwork, or other specialized forms. Taxpayers with complex tax forms are advised to seek paid tax help. Call the library at 886-6030 to make an appointment in advance. Walk-ins are welcome.

Rebecca Rule, Yankee Humorist

Drawing on research from her book, "Moved and Seconded: Town Meeting in New Hampshire, the Present, the Past and the Future", Rebecca Rule regales audiences with stories of the rituals, traditions and history of town meeting. These include the perennial characters, the literature, the humor and the wisdom of this uniquely New England institution. This program is free and open to the public through a grant from the NH Humanities Council.

This event is sure to be popular. To reserve a seat, call the library at 886-6030 or register online.

Your Brain on Gratitude
Thursday, March 21, 7:00PM

The benefits of gratitude are many, for those of us feeling grateful just as much as those on the receiving end of our gratitude. From a stronger immune system to a better ability to bounce back from negative events, gratitude has wide-ranging positive effects. Join Diane MacKinnon, MD, Master Certified Life Coach as she discusses the benefits of gratitude and how to simply and easily add more gratitude to our daily lives. Pre-registration is requested: call 886-6030 or register online.

Advanced Genealogy Researching
Friday, March 8, 1:30PM

Sometimes we are so used to searching for what others have done, we lack the skills needed to do original research. Rich Guilmette will be presenting his fourth workshop on researching. This presentation will cover what is necessary and available to do research using newspapers, obituaries, church records, city and town reports, archives and libraries.
