Fine Free Trial
Starting in January

We will be launching a trial period for a new type of borrowing model in January. The trial will be first come, first serve, and limited to 50 patrons.

The new model will eliminate overdue fines – the tradeoff being that you can take out fewer items at a time. Speak to a librarian if you're interested in participating or want more information.

Genealogy Club: Find a Grave
Friday, January 9, 1:30PM

Are you interested in family research? Whether you are a beginner or a long time genealogist, the genealogy club has something for you.

This month, Mary Gannon presents a program on using the FindAGrave website. FindAGrave provides users with images of grave markers from around the world as well as photos, biographies and other details uploaded by volunteers.
Clear Clutter and Save Memories
Monday, January 12, 1:30PM

This workshop is a practical resource for anyone who desires to reduce accumulated possessions but does not know where to begin. Possessions can be a comfort, but quickly become a burden when life changes unexpectedly. Learn how to proactively reduce clutter while at the same time preserving family memories.

Presented by professional organizer Carol Martin-Ward. Pre-registration requested. Register online or call 886-6030.

Create a Vision Board
Tuesday, January 13, 6:30PM

A vision board is a collage using images and/or words to express the people, places, events and things we wish to manifest in our lives. When created from a place of peace, a vision board will help you clarify the deepest desires of your heart. Spend a couple of hours relaxing your logical, thinking mind and playing with images and colors. You will come away with a map to your best life. All supplies will be provided. If you have a few favorite magazines or images you don't mind cutting up, bring them along. Otherwise just bring yourself!

There will be a $5 materials fee for this workshop. Pre-registration is requested call 886-6030 or register online.

Downton Abbey Tea & Trivia + Season 5 Sneak Peak
Bring a favorite cup and saucer and enjoy tea party treats at this themed party. Downton inspired attire and/or hats encouraged, but by no means required. Test your knowledge of all things Downton: there will be a prize for the winner!

At 1PM we will show the final four episodes of Season 5, before they air on PBS!

If you have any tea cups, tea sets or other appropriate high tea gear you would be willing to lend us for this event, please call Amy at the library (886-6030) or email her directly at amyfriedman@rodgerslibrary.org. Pre-register online or by phone.

eReader Help
3rd Tuesday (January 20), 1PM

In addition to our weekly eReader help at the library, we will now also be providing a monthly help session on site at the new Hudson Senior Center. Stop by with your questions and devices!
