Love, Loss and What I Wore

Thursday, September 20, 7:00PM

Join the award winning Actorsingers as they present a one hour cutting of this hit Off-Broadway play. Love, Loss and What I Wore is a collection of stories based on the best-selling book by Ilene Beckerman and written by Nora and Delia Ephron, best known as the writers of such films as When Harry Met Sally, Sleepless in Seattle, and You've Got Mail. The play uses clothing and accessories and the memories they trigger to tell funny and often poignant stories all women can relate to.

Admission is free, but donations of toiletries or canned goods for local shelters is requested.

The cast will be presenting this play at the NH Community Theatre Association Festival competition later in September. Come see the show before the competition -- audience feedback will be welcome at the end of the presentation.

Ella Fitzgerald - It Don't Mean a Thing

Tuesday, September 25, 7:00PM

Singer and teacher Nanette Perrotte explores Ella Fitzgerald's extraordinary journey from homeless in Harlem to the Queen of Swing in this multimedia presentation and performance. Her story is played out in the context of the Harlem Renaissance, the Great Depression, segregation and World War II. Through singing Ella's signature songs and telling her story, Perrotte illuminates the social history of those times and showcases Ella Fitzgerald's masterful work and complex life story.
